

Newsletter June 2024 - Peters hot shi

It will soon be over!

Dear readers, we are approaching the end of the semester. With eyes closed and a bit of a stomach ache from the exams, then it's summer. But if you're looking for a little relaxation on the way there, then take a look at the event calendar. After all, you need some mental balance in between. Good luck with your exams, STV!

HandFEST Arts& Crafts Workshop afternoon

Have you always wanted to make bead necklaces and animals, but don't want to end up with mountains of material left over? Would you like to spend a cozy afternoon with nice people and do something creative before the exam period begins? Then you've come to the right place. On Thursday, June 6, 2024 from 3 pm we are organizing a bead craft afternoon. If the weather is fine, we'll meet at the fountain and then sit in the park, so feel free to bring your picnic blanket! If it does get rainy or cold, we will meet at the same time in seminar room 23 in the Ilse Wallentin House. We have all the material for animals, necklaces and even eyeglass straps, but you are welcome to bring your own material or inspiration and instructions. You can register right away under this link: Link1

See you soon! Your pile of leaves

Podcast

Hör mal wer die Welt verändert Hör mal, wer die Welt verändert” is a podcast by students that deals with sustainable and interdisciplinary topics. In our latest episode “Rights of Nature”, Anna and Luca discuss with Jula Zenetti what it would mean to give nature its own rights. Imagine if mountains could sue in court for their integrity or rivers for their right to clean water. We ask ourselves: What would that mean for our treatment of the environment? What could such a model look like in Europe? What role does the Global South play in this movement?

Process technology survey 2

Dear UBRMLis, we would like to invite you to take part in our survey on the course “Process Technology 2”. Your feedback is extremely important to us in order to improve the quality of the course and to be able to support the studyability in the interest of the students. The survey is anonymous and will be used for evaluation purposes. Your participation is voluntary and all data will be treated confidentially. Thank you in advance for your participation and your valuable feedback!

Best regards Your StV and FachStuAG UBRM

Positive environmental news

There is a lot of positive environmental news, such as the new labeling requirement for honey and jam in the EU. Sometimes it's just small steps, sometimes it's big steps, but a Parliament and a Commission where environmental protection means something is important for everyone. Therefore, it is not only important to vote on June 9, but also to ask others to exercise their right. So that there will also be positive news in the future.
